Not illustrated. 1901 Excerpt: . office is deposited a large body of excise records from New York City, to which reference will be found in the part of this report relating to that municipality, but no other records of local excise boards are to be found here. The files of this department are very voluminous, and are well kept. They contain, for the period since the office was created, complete files of daily reports and slip reports from all parts of the States. The slip reports are arranged by counties under the names of the agents who send them. They contain the record of all licensed places, the daily reports being the statements from the excise agents of their daily doings. Bundles of maps are here of all towns enumerated by the State commissioner of excise, with enumeration bonds from all these towns. Files of all certificates canceled since 1896 are preserved; these are licenses surrendered for rebates, or for any reason which occasions voluntary action on the part of the grantee. Here are also files of all reports made by county treasurers and special commissioners. Stub books for the whole State from May 1, 1896, to the present; files of vouchers for all bills paid by the department; files of all requisitions of and receipts for supplies furnished special agents, deputy commissioners, and county treasurers; files of papers and briefs of the law business of the department; files of reports of county clerks, police magistrates, and justices of the...
