Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Instruction Book in the Art of Silk Culture In presenting an instruction book to the public, the Association do not claim to give their own experience in the practical branches of sericulture, not their results from such culture. As citizens we have no surroundings to enable us to practically test this agricultural pursuit, but we give such facts as are gleaned from the best books published on this subject, and some of the personal efforts or plans of those who have successfully accomplished Silk Culture. The instructions are explicit and contain all the information which can be given on the subject of Silk Culture to those at a distance, and who cannot attend the school. Facts have been gathered from the best manuals on the subject, and the aim has been to present the simplest and easiest methods of pursuing the work. It is adapted to the needs of a large class of intelligent people all over our land, and commends itself especially to the young, as developing an interest in one of the humblest yet most useful of God's creatures, requiring the intelligent care and observation of the habits of a worm that possesses three strange organizations, whose product forms one of the most valuable commodities of commerce and manufactures, and well may we say part of a nation's wealth surrounds a worm. We are indebted to Felix Gillet, of Nevada City, California, an intelligent and experienced silk culturist, for one chapter of excellent matter, also to a work - by the late John Clarke - on the Mulberry tree, permission having been granted to the Association by his daughter, Miss Clarke,...
