

Universal Ethos: Global Renewal

By Johan T. Burgh

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book seeks to review the nature of the human spirit, individually and collectively, suggesting approaches to renew our common identity and responsibility to and for each other, leaving ethnic and religious arguments behind, but instead recognising and realising our common ethos, under economic, ecological and governmental statutes, in line with these supposed days of globalisation. Its propositions, though seemingly radical, are designed to open our minds to new and realisable ideas, so as to provide a forum for the possibility of moving forward from the conditions of dissension between people which so often confound our supposed best efforts to improve the condition of life, our spirit and our world order. In some detail it reviews the fundamental needs and rights of the human spirit in terms of emotional and psychological fulfillment, then seeks to define the necessary interactions between us which constitute our combined and desired universal communion. While glossing over the many complex issues which currently constitute our national and international affairs, it achieves, at a new level, incisive recommendations for simplifying our sense of what...
