

Wayside (Classic Reprint)

By Jessie Urquhart

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Wayside At ten o'clock each morning the township of Wayside came in touch with the outside world, and for an hour or so awakened into something like activity. It was usually about that hour; but, of course, one could not be quite certain for Jerry Dawkins, who drove the mail coach (it was really a four-wheeled buggy), to and from Woolbong, the railway town some eight miles off, was not at all particular as to half an hour or so. It gratified his insignificant mind to know that the entire population was gathered on the store verandah awaiting his arrival, and it was said that on one occasion, when he had been before his time, he had waited round the bend in the road until the people arrived at the store. There was only one person in Wayside he was really afraid of. That was Priscilla Trent. Miss Trent had been postmistress in the township for over thirty years, and had become quite uncanny in her knowledge of other people's affairs, simply by...
